ACADEMIC CUSTOMS AND DRESS

The origins of many customs of the academic world are to be traced to the Middle Ages, particularly the eleventh and twelfth centuries when the first European universities — Bologna, Paris, and Oxford — were founded.

In their original organization, the universities were like medieval corporations or guilds. In fact the word “universitas” originally referred to any kind of corporation. The students at the universities were equated to guild apprentices, and so the completion of the apprenticeship was celebrated by a “commencement” marking the beginning of their careers.

In the twelfth century, everyone wore gowns. The social and economic status of an individual was shown by the extra features, such as fur trimming, on the gowns. Cloaks with hoods were worn over gowns for protection in bad weather. Degrees began to be awarded in the thirteenth century, and different styles of gowns and different colors came to represent the various degrees and disciplines.

Over the centuries the styles of dress changed, and by the seventeenth century, the wearing of gowns by men had virtually ceased. But the universities, particularly those in Britain, continued to be conservative and strict in the manner of academic customs and dress. At Oxford, for instance, candidates for master's degrees had to swear that they owned a gown and would always wear it at the proper times.

The first American universities were founded on English models. However, the wearing of academic dress was not universal and ceased during the Civil War. The custom was revived in the late nineteenth century, and in 1895 an academic custom code was adopted which, with modifications, is still used.

Most American universities have the standard black gown with the hood serving to distinguish the individual institution. Some American and European universities have adopted or preserved more distinctive gowns. There are three styles of gowns, distinguished mainly by the sleeves; the bachelor's gown, with long, pointed sleeves; the master's, with a squared sleeve, cut so the forearm is free; the doctor's, with bell-shaped sleeves with three velvet bands.

The hood is the really distinguishing feature of modern gowns, indicating the degree (the width of the edging band), the discipline (the color of the band) and the college or university (the colors of the lining). Today's graduates have hoods edged in white (B.A., M.A.L.S.), gold (B.S., B.L.S), drab (B.P.S., M.B.A.), or light blue (M.Ed.). Many faculty members will have blue edging indicating the Ph.D. degree. The faculty will be wearing hoods representing many distinguished institutions of higher education, e.g., orange and maroon for Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, maroon and white for the University of Chicago, red and black for Rutgers University, and navy blue and orange for the University of Virginia.

ACADEMIC HONORS AND SPECIAL AWARDS

Academic achievement is recognized at Commencement through a variety of honors and awards. Other awards were presented at the Convocation ceremony held on Friday, May 10. In addition, most academic departments sponsor chapters of honor societies which recognize student achievement in specific disciplines.

ACADEMIC DISTINCTION

The college recognizes the academic achievement of graduating students through the awards of Summa Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, Cum Laude, With Highest Distinction, and With Distinction. Students who have earned at least 60 graded credits in residence may qualify for the first three of these awards with the following grade point averages.

Summa Cum Laude      3.75 or higher

Magna Cum Laude      3.50-3.74

Cum Laude      3.25-3.49

With Highest Distinction and With Distinction are awarded to graduating seniors who have earned 30 to 59 graded credits in residence with the following grade point averages.

With Highest Distinction      3.75 or higher

With Distinction      3.30-3.74

DEPARTMENTAL HONORS

Students may earn graduation with honors in their major subjects. Each department establishes its own requirements for honors projects or theses. All departments require that a student intending to undertake an honors project have a specified minimum grade point average in the major subject and a minimum grade point average for all work taken at Mary Washington College.

COLGATE W. DARDEN, JR. AWARD.

This award was established in 1960 to honor Colgate W. Darden, Jr., president of the University of Virginia from 1947 to 1959. It consists of a medal designed by Gaetano Cecere, formerly of the Department of Art, and a cash sum. It is awarded to the senior having the highest cumulative grade point average. To be eligible for the Darden Award, a student must have earned at least 94 hours on which quality points may be computed.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION OUTSTANDING YOUNG FACULTY MEMBER AWARD.

This award recognizes an outstanding young member of our faculty, one who has been at the college from two to five years. Started in 1989, recent recipients (and their current faculty ranks) include:

1998	W. Gardner Campbell Associate Professor of English
1999	Christine A. McBride Associate Professor of Psychology
2000	Kelli M. Slunt Assistant Professor of Chemistry
2001	Stephen Farnsworth Assistant Professor of Political Science

MARY W. PINSCHMIDT AWARD. This award was established in 1999 in honor of Professor Mary W. Pinschmidt who, throughout her academic career, served as a role model and practitioner of exceptional liberal arts teaching and was a tireless contributor of service to her colleagues, her students, and the institution at large. The recipient of this award is selected by graduating seniors as the professor they "are most likely to remember as the one who had the greatest impact on (their) lives."

1999	Stephen J. Farnsworth Assistant Professor of Political Science
2000	Werner Wieland Professor of Biological Sciences
2001	Erin Foubert Assistant Professor of Geography

GRELLET C. SIMPSON AWARD. This award, made possible by an anonymous donor, is presented each year at graduation to a faculty member in recognition of excellence in undergraduate teaching. Started in 1972, recent recipients (and their current faculty ranks) include:

1998	Bulent I. Atalay Professor of Physics
1999	Steven A. Greenlaw Professor of Economics
2000	J. William Kemp, Jr. Professor of English, Linguistics and Speech
2001	Clavio Ascani Professor of Italian

FACULTY EMERITUS

Faculty members who have served Mary Washington College for at least 15 years and who have attained the rank of professor or associate professor are eligible upon retirement to be considered for emeritus status. This honor, by action of the Board of Visitors, is bestowed this year upon three distinguished members of the faculty.

James E. Baker Distinguished Professor of Music

The holder of B.S. and M.Ed. degrees from Pennsylvania State University and a D.M.A. degree from the Catholic University of America, James E. Baker joined the Mary Washington College faculty as a member of the Music Department in 1965. In addition to teaching a full complement of courses, he served for 21 innovative years as chair of his Department, in the process overseeing the impressive renovation of the Department's facilities. His contribution to the College was, above all, his 1972 creation of the College-Community Orchestra. Through his enthusiasm and by lent of his talent and tenacity, the Orchestra not only grew in numbers to nearly 90 members, but improved in the sophistication of repertoire and quality of musicianship to the point that it was invited to perform at Carnegie Hall in March 2002.

Bernard L. Mahoney, Jr.
Distinguished Professor of Chemistry

Bernard L. Mahoney, Jr. joined the Mary Washington College faculty in 1964, having earned his B.S. and M.S. degrees at Boston College and his Ph.D. in Chemistry from the University of New Hampshire. He quickly emerged as a leader of the faculty and, over the next 38 years, served on 14 College committees, chairing more than half of them, and as chair of the Chemistry Department for 12 years. He was instrumental in the College's move to coeducational status and in the creation of the B.L.S. and internship programs. Much beloved by his students and deeply respected by his colleagues, Dr. Mahoney was above all a dedicated teacher whose pedagogical skills were formally recognized in 1984 when he received the Grellet C. Simpson Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching.

Adrienne C. May
Associate Professor of Education

Beginning with her enrollment as a student in 1967, Adrienne C. May has been involved with Mary Washington College as student, faculty member, and administrator. After receiving her undergraduate degree, she taught English for 14 years in Stafford County before returning to earn her Master of Arts in Liberal Studies at MWC in 1983. She joined the faculty of the Education Department in 1986 and taught until 1996, in the meanwhile completing a doctorate at the University of Virginia. In 1996 she was appointed Associate Dean of Academic Services, in which capacity she earned from her colleagues a reputation for patience, thoroughness, fairness and tough-mindedness. In spring 2001, Dr. May returned to teaching in the Education Program at the James Monroe Center for Graduate and Professional Studies.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

JOHN H. CHICHESTER SENATOR OF VIRGINIA

The Honorable John H. Chichester is the President pro tempore of the Senate of Virginia. He was first elected in 1978 and has completed his twenty-fourth session with the Legislature. He is the senior member of his Party in that body.

Senator Chichester is Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, which deals with both appropriations and taxation for the Commonwealth and is considered the most powerful committee in the Legislature. In addition, he serves on three other standing committees and is a member of both the Senate Rules Committee and the Joint Rules Committee, which govern legislative procedures and operations.

Senator Chichester is Past Chairman of the Southern Legislative Conference and currently serves as Chairman of the Council of State Governments. He is also a gubernatorial appointee to the Southern Regional Education Board.

In 1996, he concluded his work as Chairman of the Commission on the Future of Higher Education in Virginia. He also served as the Co-Chairman of the Joint Subcommittee on Higher Education Funding Policies.

Senator Chichester serves on the Board of Trustees for the Jamestown-Yorktown Foundation. In addition, he is a member and past president of the Fredericksburg Rotary Club and participates in numerous other civic organizations both locally and nationally.

He was born in Stafford County, Virginia, where he still resides with his wife, Karen.

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

SENATOR JOHN H. CHICHESTER DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

THE HONORABLE V. EARL DICKINSON DOCTOR OF HUMANE LETTERS

The Honorable V. Earl Dickinson earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Richmond and was subsequently awarded an honorary doctorate from the same institution.

He has achieved notable success both in the business world and in civic affairs with over thirty years of public service.

As a member of the Virginia General Assembly from 1972 until 2002 representing the 56th House District, he rose to a position of widely acknowledged leadership as exemplified by his service on the Committees for Privileges and Elections, Rules, and Transportation, as well as by his exceptional work in the crucially important role of Chair, and later Co-Chair, of the House Appropriations Committee. Throughout his tenure in the General Assembly he has demonstrated support for the educational mission of Mary Washington College and has worked effectively to secure the funds essential for the pursuit of that mission.

He and his wife, the former Mary Louise Walton, reside in Mineral, Virginia.

THE EAGLE PIPE BAND

Performing at today's commencement ceremony is the Eagle Pipe Band. The band was formed in 1997 with a small combination of Mary Washington College students and members of the Fredericksburg community. It has grown steadily each year, adding pipers, drummers, and dancers.

Of special interest, and great pride, the Eagle Pipe Band was founded by, and is under the direction of, Dr. Raymond B. Scott, Chairperson and Professor of Chemistry at Mary Washington College. Performers at today's ceremony include students at Mary Washington College as well as members of the greater Fredericksburg community. The tartan worn by performers was designed by the College to match the school colors, and is registered in Scotland's official registry of tartans.

ALMA MATER

All hail, dear Alma Mater,
We sing our praise to you.
High on Marye's Hilltop
You stand forever true;
Born in truth and honor
You ever more shall be,
The model of our future years
And all eternity.

Whene'er we have to leave you
We never will forget,
The lessons you have taught us,
And all the friends we've met;
And we your sons and daughters
Will hold your name on high,
So here's to Mary Washington;
Our love will never die.
